

Article 25

INTERPRETATION

Section 2501. CONFLICT WITH OTHER LAWS.

The provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed to be minimum requirements to meet the purposes stated herein. Where the provisions of this ordinance impose greater restrictions than those of any federal or State statute, rule, regulation or other ordinance, the provisions of this ordinance shall prevail. Where the provisions of any federal or State statute, rule, regulation or other ordinance impose greater restrictions than those of this ordinance, the provisions of such federal or State statute, rule, regulation or ordinance shall prevail.

Section 2502. SEVERABILITY.

The provisions of this ordinance are hereby declared to be severable. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase or provision hereof is held or is judged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be unconstitutional, illegal or otherwise invalid, any such holding or judgment shall not be construed as affecting or impairing any other section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase, or provision of this ordinance, it being the expressed intent of the Board of Commissioners that this ordinance would have been enacted had such unconstitutional, illegal or otherwise invalid section, subsection, clause, phrase or provision not been included herein.

Section 2503. SAVING CLAUSE.

Nothing in this ordinance shall be construed to affect any suit or proceeding pending in any court, or any rights acquitted, or liability incurred, or any cause or causes of action acquired or existing under any act or ordinance hereby repealed, nor shall any just or legal right or remedy of any character be lost, impaired or affected by this ordinance.
