

East Pennsboro Township Gingerbread House Contest RULES & INSTRUCTIONS

East Pennsboro Township Recreation Department would like to invite school-aged children to decorate their own Gingerbread House however they want! The contest will take place:

Submissions Accepted: Friday, November 6th – Friday, December 11th

Voting: Monday, December 14th at 9:00am – December 18th at 12:00pm

Winners Announced: Monday, December 21st

1. The Gingerbread House Competition is open to all school-aged students, Pre-K through 5th Grade who live in East Pennsboro Township.
2. Contest entry forms can be found on www.eastpennsboro.net.
3. Print a copy of the gingerbread house outline and begin creating.
4. Use markers, candy, stickers, craft supplies, holiday decorations and your imagination to turn the blank Gingerbread House into a work of art. Any type of medium is acceptable.
5. Take one picture of the completed project and email it to recreation@eastpennsboro.net.
6. Along with the picture of the gingerbread house, please include the following in the email:
 - student's name
 - student's grade
 - parent/guardian's name
 - address and phone number
7. Photos will be uploaded to Facebook on Monday, December 14th when voting will begin.
8. To vote, visit East Pennsboro Township Parks & Recreation Facebook page. Click on 'Photos'. Under the 'Albums' section, there will be 7 albums of submissions, one for each grade level.
9. Facebook users can cast votes for their favorite gingerbread houses by clicking the "Like" button. There is no limit to how many photos a voter can "Like." Spread the word to family and friends!
10. Photos will be numbered and uploaded without the name of the student artist who created it.
11. Voting ends on Friday, December 18th at 12:00pm.
12. The gingerbread houses with the most "Like"s will win. Grand Prize winners from each grade will receive a monetary gift from the Recreation Department. The top vote getters from each grade will be recognized by the Township online.
13. Winners will be contacted and announced on Monday, December 21st.
